Terming the Rafale deal the country's "biggest defence scam", Azad accused Prime Minister Narendra Modi of avoiding inquiry into the issue.

PM Modi scrapped the contract inked by the UPA government with France for Rafale jets and signed a new deal without discussing it with his cabinet.

According to the earlier contract was Rs. 526 crore but it increased to Rs. 1,670 crore in the new deal. Azad alleged.

said that earlier as well the administration had informally shut down several open spaces for offering Namaz in the city, and now they sealed the mosque after a controversy erupted over it a week ago. "Since the administration could do it under the garb of action against illegal construction, they planned to do it," said Mr. Roy.

He added that it would only embolden the Hindu outfits and create an atmosphere where they can cry about anything and get it done. Mr. Roy said the organisation members meet in the evening to decide the future course of action.

Meanwhile, a large number of Muslims continued to sit on "dharna" outside the mosque as a mark of protest against the sealing. Wajid Khan Nehru Yuva Sangathan Welfare Society chairman Haziid Shahzad Khan said the community members would give a memorandum to the Deputy Commissioner on the issue.

The members of Sanyukt Hindu Sangarsh Samiti, conglomeration of local units of right-wing outfits, held a meeting during the day to welcome the action taken by the administration and demanded that holding of "dharna" near the sealed structure be not allowed as it could disturb the peace in the area. "It was an illegal structure being used to offer Namaz and a majority of the population had objection to it."
